Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, After thirteen years as Pierre/Ft. Pierre's premiere toast of the town, Lois Pier is retiring from show business; and,

WHEREAS, Since 1970, as the community's Welcome Wagon Hostess, Lois has been showing new citizens what a friendly, outgoing place these central South Dakota cities can be; and,

WHEREAS, She has also shown newcomers how affable and generous the town's local merchants really are; and,

WHEREAS, Lois Pier knows Pierre and Fort Pierre inside out. In the last thirteen years, she's travelled over 100,000 miles, made nearly 8,000 calls, worn out two cars (not to mention denting a couple fenders), and no doubt kept several shoe stores in the black; and,

WHEREAS, Lois goes out of her way to make new people comfortable in central South Dakota. She talks with them, she answers their questions, and she offers them free goodies from the local businesspeople. In this respect, she has been a bearer of glad tidings, as well as a true booster of the area Chamber of Commerce; and,

WHEREAS, Along with all of these duties, Lois also takes it upon herself to visit the parents of every newborn baby at St. Mary's Hospital; and,

WHEREAS, The Pierre Chamber of Commerce has declared September 16th as Lois Pier Day, in recognition of the fine work done by this ambassador of good will; and,

WHEREAS, Although Lois is leaving her position as Hostess, she will not be forgotten, and she will never be replaced. Folks around here will always remember her as the woman who never wore out her welcome:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 16, 1983, as

LOIS PIER DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
